

Calwise Spirits Co. takes over the copper still at Hotel Cerro for an all-new Gin Workshop

Paso Robles-based Calwise Spirits Co. partners with San Luis Obispo Hotel Cerro for an all-new Gin Workshop and "Meet the Distiller Experience"

PASO ROBLES, CALIFORNIA, USA, March 20, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Hotel Cerro presents another exclusive event that promises to provide a unique experience for craft spirits enthusiasts and connoisseurs. On April 3, 2024, the upscale Hotel will host the next event in their Distiller Experience series, "Still Takeover and Gin Workshop" featuring Calwise Spirits Co., of the renowned Paso Robles Distillery Trail. The event will feature a takeover of Hotel Cerro's beautiful copper still by Calwise Spirits Co., demonstrating the distilling process, from grain to glass.

Calwise Spirits Co., located in the heart of Paso Robles wine country, has garnered a reputation for its rebel heritage and its commitment to crafting exceptional spirits using innovative techniques. The founder, Aaron Bergh, is a perfectionist and lover of nature, who takes inspiration from the California Central Coast that he calls home. In this workshop, he will share the experiences he found on the central coast – the sights, the smells, and the flavors – through his creations at Calwise Spirits Co. This dedication to quality and sense of the local terroir make them a perfect match for Hotel Cerro's commitment to providing guests with exceptional experiences.

"We're thrilled to partner with Calwise Spirits Co. for this extraordinary event," says Greg Heyn, General Manager of Hotel Cerro. "Our aim at Hotel Cerro is to provide our guests with unforgettable experiences, and this Still Takeover and Gin Workshop promises to be just that. It's
