

Texas Renaissance Festival Gives Back to Local Community Organizations

The Texas Renaissance Festival will participate in community events throughout the spring and summer leading up to its 50th anniversary festival season.

TODD MISSION, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, March 19, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Texas Renaissance Festival (TRF) will be engaging in several charitable events in the months leading up to its 50th anniversary season and celebration. TRF has long been a contributor to charities in the region, and with this significant milestone approaching, the organization is more engaged than ever in giving back to the communities that have supported the festival for half a century.

“With our 50th anniversary around the corner, we’ve had plenty of time to reflect on the growth we’ve had and the memories we’ve made,” said Kolton Ammerman, Marketing Director for the Texas Renaissance Festival. “So many local organizations and individuals have embraced TRF and enabled it to grow into a place of merriment and magic, where people can don their favorite garb and forget the worries of the everyday. The Texas Renaissance Festival would not be what it is today without the support and patronage of the surrounding communities, and to thank those communities, we want to give back.”

The Texas Renaissance Festival will be involved in the following charitable events this spring and summer:
