A Wealth of Experience in Revenue Cycle Management
Initiating her vibrant career at Tenet in 1991, Dawn Castro has since carved out an impressive professional trajectory spanning across an expansive 34-year period. Specializing in a variety of leadership capacities within the healthcare revenue cycle domain, Castro has garnered significant experience and influence throughout her career.

In 2008, Castro played an integral role in the launch of Conifer, where she actively engaged in various mergers and acquisitions that encompassed hospitals, ambulatory surgery centers (ASCs), and physician practices. Her inherent leadership capabilities shone through her involvement with high-impact projects and operations, where she became a staunch advocate for standardization and optimization, earning wide acclaim in the process.

A Passion for Operational Excellence

In a detailed interview with Jena Eggert of RCR|HUB, Castro's commitment to operational excellence was brought to the forefront. Her ardent passion for hands-on operational initiatives and processes fueled her transition to Surgery Partners.
