

Team USA Pankration Squad Boasts Unprecedented Family Representation at World Championships

As Team USA prepares to take on the world at the upcoming Pankration World Championships in Romania, a unique story is unfolding within its ranks.

DALLAS, TX, USA, March 19, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- As Team USA prepares to take on the world at the upcoming Pankration World Championships in Romania, a unique story is unfolding within its ranks. This year's team boasts an exceptional number of siblings and a first-ever three-generation family contingent, showcasing the deep commitment and family spirit within the American Pankration community.

Pankration, an ancient combat sport combining elements of wrestling and boxing, demands exceptional physical and mental fortitude. This year's Team USA brings a powerful force, with several sets of siblings vying for glory in Romania.

- Jehan Izhar and Zee Wolters from California stand poised to showcase their sisterly mettle and tenacity on the world stage.
- Braden Cermak and Mannix Cermak from North Carolina represent another duo determined to bring home gold.
- The fighting spirit runs deep in the Peterson family of Michigan, with sisters Nicole Peterson and Haley Peterson ready to prove their mettle.
- Hailing from Texas, brothers Dalton Riggs and Daniel Riggs offer a formidable presence on the

But perhaps the most compelling story comes from Wisconsin. Dave Sixel, his son Mike Sixel, and Mike's daughter Ahmani Sixel will mark history as the first three-generation family to compete for Team USA at the Pankration World Championships. Ahmani, the youngest member of Team USA, carries the torch forward for this exceptional family legacy.

"This level of family representation on Team USA is truly inspiring," says Team USA Captain Jenae Noonan. "It speaks volumes about the dedication and support systems these athletes have built within their own families. Witnessing their camaraderie and passion will be a highlight of the competition."

Butch Chelliah, CEO of BizConnect360, the Consulting Firm for Team USA, adds, "We're incredibly proud to be associated with a team that fosters such strong family bonds. It's a testament to the power of Pankration – it's a sport that builds strength and resilience, both individually and collectively."

Team USA's journey to the World Championships is fueled by the unwavering support of BizConnect360. Together, they aim to bring home victory and inspire the next generation of Pankration athletes.
