Hollywood, CA - On March 19th, 2024, Curtis Young, the first born seed of music mogul Dr. Dre, joined his family in celebrating his father's monumental achievement - receiving a star on the prestigious Hollywood Walk of Fame. The event, marked by a star-studded ceremony and attended by industry icons including Eminem, Snoop Dogg, Big Boy, DJ Quik, Xzibit, and 50 Cent, was a testament to Dr. Dre's enduring impact on the world of music.

Curtis Young was accompanied by his principal partner Monarch Young and Cal Dental USA's business disruptors, Mr. & Mrs. Jones. Record executive Jimmy Iovine, with whom Dre founded Beats Electronics and the Jimmy Iovine and Andre Young Academy at USC, was also in attendance.

We honor My Dad's legacy today. His impact in music and our lives is profound.”

Curtis Young, often affectionately known as the "People's Champ," exemplified humility and genuine connection as he engaged with fans and well-wishers at the celebration. From joining the exclusive private Gin and Juice after-party at the iconic Roosevelt Hotel in Hollywood to personally greeting fans one by one, Curtis's down-to-earth demeanor resonated deeply, especially considering his lineage as the son of a billionaire like Dr. Dre.

The Hollywood Walk of Fame ceremony, a historic moment for Dr. Dre was further enriched by the presence of Curtis Young's newest addition to the family, Dr. Dre's granddaughter, Eminence Amor Young. Her Eminence symbolizes the continuation of the Young legacy and lineage of supreme Love.

Reflecting on the significance of the moment, Curtis Young expressed gratitude for the Hollywood Chamber of Commerce's recognition of his father's contributions to the music industry.

Also, Dr. Dre, known for his characteristic humor, expressed his appreciation to the Hollywood Chamber of Commerce in his own unique style. "I'd like to thank the Hollywood Chamber of Commerce for finally deeming me ready to walk alongside legends like Ice Cube, Snoop Dogg, and 50 Cent," quipped Dr. Dre. "No hard feelings, I'm just glad to be here."

The event not only celebrated Dr. Dre's unparalleled achievements but also highlighted Curtis Young's genuine heart to honor his father, shine star light, and illuminate that California love.
