

ARK Technology Consultants Acquires Cary, North Carolina Based 5S Technologies

5S Technologies, a full-service professional and managed IT (Information Technology) services organization has been acquired by Ark Technology Consultants.

GARDEN CITY, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, March 20, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- 5S Technologies, a full-service professional and managed IT (Information Technology) services organization known for its expertise in Nutanix, Security Offerings, and Data Center Solutions, with a focus on specializing in day-to-day operations, as well as project optimization, has been acquired by Ark Technology Consultants, a rapidly growing consulting and technology firm.

Walter Cook, CEO of Ark Technology Consultants

"After speaking with multiple buyers, it was clear Ark Technology Consultants was the best fit for our employees and customers. Walter Cook, CEO of Ark Technology Consultants, and his team have a vision that aligns with our guiding principles. I look forward to working with the Ark team as VP of the Carolina's and continuing to bring technology solutions and services to an expanding client base," said Mike Shook, Founder and CEO of 5S Technologies.

"The business growth taking place in North and South Carolina is remarkable. Mike Shook is the right person to be leading our efforts in the market and helping us to further the growth of Ark Technology Consultants," said Walter Cook, CEO of Ark Technology Consultants. "Between Mike's leadership and his team at 5S Technologies, we have broadened our Nutanix Champion partnership as well as our Security Solutions. This acquisition is strategic for Ark and provides a larger platform for further expansion."

Ark Technology Consultants was founded in late 2021 with the goal of building a cloud-based IT services firm that is both people-centered and client-driven. The 5S Technology acquisition is the company's third since its founding. In addition to North Carolina and New York, Ark also has operations in Pennsylvania and New Jersey.
