Stumble & Fall by Amy Rivers from "A Legacy of Silence" Series

Central to this riveting creation is Kate, who finds solace in renovating her desert home and establishing a psychological counseling practice after the loss of her father. However, crossing the murky waters of trust proves to be a treacherous path in her quest for truth. As she searches for answers, she faces the daunting task of determining trustworthy allies. Yet, her steadfast resolve leads her into peril, and the burden of revealing the truth might be overpowering for her.

In the interim, Tilly, Kate's sister, makes her way back to New Mexico. Tilly finds herself on the edge of imminent danger as a tragic family event sets off a destructive pattern of behavior. With the lives of the victims they endeavor to assist dangling in uncertainty, Kate and Tilly wrestle with fear and self-doubt as they staunchly fight for justice.

"Stumble & Fall" looks into the heartbreaking sacrifices and obstacles encountered when the hunt for truth transforms into a treacherous journey. Amy Rivers artfully crafts a narrative that holds readers spellbound, prompting them to ponder the limits of justice and the extremes one might undertake to safeguard the vulnerable. The book's accolade, clinching the esteemed 2023 Firebird Book Award, stands as a testament to Rivers' exceptional storytelling acumen.
