

Fenris Announces Expanded Partnership with bolt

The collaboration addresses growing demand for personal and commercial lines insurance in the US

RICHMOND, VA, UNITED STATES, March 26, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Fenris Digital, a provider of real-time insight and enrichment data, and bolt, the insurtech with the country's largest technology-enabled insurance exchange, announced an expanded partnership to continue modernizing the insurance experience for carriers, distribution partners, and end-customers.

The strategic collaboration brings together each company's complementary strengths in delivering real-time insights and enrichment data and insurance distribution technology and services to offer innovative solutions that remove friction in the insurance purchasing journey and enable a personalized, fast, and easy customer experience.

bolt is the leading distribution platform for property and casualty (P&C) insurance, connecting insurers, distribution partners, and customers to transform the way insurance is bought and sold. bolt will continue to leverage Fenris' API for real-time enrichment data and insights on its insurance exchange across personal and commercial lines of business, making it easier for carriers and distribution partners to bind new business quickly and accurately.

Jen Linton, CEO of Fenris, commented: "We are delighted to build on our partnership with bolt to help enable their rapidly growing insurance exchange. As a leader in innovative data and insights serving the U.S. insurance market, we leverage our proprietary, purpose-built data set to enrich millions of insurance applications each year. But we go further than pre-fill; our data also feeds into our suite of real-time machine learning insights and algorithms, which are tuned to
