

Seiji Kawajiri contributes funding for "NAKED Sakura Festival 2024: World Heritage Site Nijo-jo Castle"

TOKYO, JAPAN, March 26, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Seiji Kawajiri was involved with the funding towards the "NAKED Sakura Festival 2024: World Heritage Site Nijo-jo Castle".

Nijo-jo Castle is one of the most iconic cherry blossom viewing spots in Kyoto, and is loved by people from all over the world for its approximate 300 Japanese cherry trees, architectural masterpieces, and Japanese gardens designated as national treasures and important cultural properties.

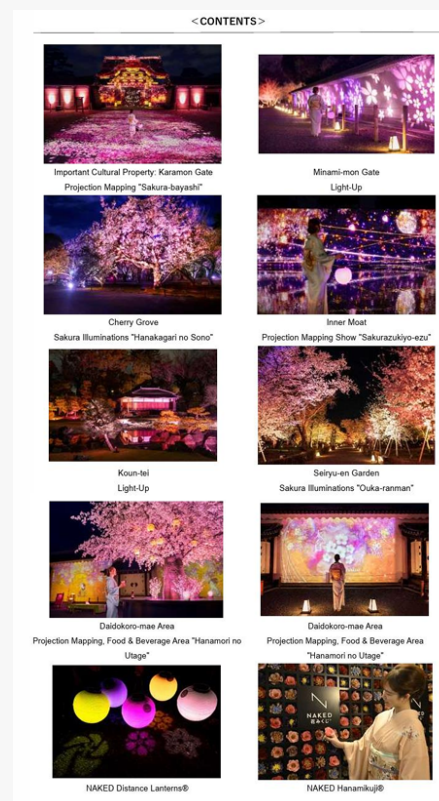

Due to the fact that a Kawajiri name corporation is located in Kyoto City, Kawajiri's activities as a new-generation gallerist focus on promoting Kyoto's culture and art, which includes the support of NAKED's annual nighttime cherry blossom festivities at Nijo-jo Castle. Through this art event, which brings together the World Heritage Site, real cherry blossoms, and NAKED's artworks, we aim to deliver a grand stage that shines light on traditional Japanese culture and art found in Kyoto.
