

Artist, Vania Soto, Featured in Trudy Jacobson's Web Series, "Great American Women"!

KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI, UNITED STATES , April 26, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Vania Soto is an artist who found her passion in a restaurant in Tennessee before opening the Monarca Art Gallery in West Bottoms district of Kansas City, Missouri.

From an early age, Vania had a strong business sense, selling her first pieces of art to the owner of a restaurant she dined at with her family. "Being from Mexico, I didn't like how the art portrayed the stereotypes, and I never appreciated that. I didn't want people to see that and think that's how my dad is." After she told her mother about her feelings, she offered her own artwork as a way to replace the stereotypical and offending pieces. The restaurant owner purchased all of the samples Vania brought in. After that, she knew she needed to chase her passion as an artist.
