Productions, the cutting-edge Web3 platform has inked a new deal with a legend in the tattoo and social media world. Mogul Productions latest collaboration with social media sensation, Funky Matas, on his new documentary project [Why].

Funky is a walking, talking modern take on the Hollywood Walk of Fame. Celebrities love this guy for his unfiltered attitude and how he is the embodiment of his own creativity. His art form has turned him into a viral sensation and now he is going to bring his fans even closer through his upcoming docuseries.

But here's the kicker – Funky Matas is not just stopping at making a documentary. He's also launching a fundraising initiative on Mogul Productions' platform, giving fans and film buffs alike the unique opportunity to be a part of this cinematic journey.

"This is so dope. I get to work with my community to fund and participate in my tv show. We are in this together folks." - Funky Matas

Mogul Productions is all about empowering creators and giving the audience a front-row seat to the filmmaking process, and this partnership with Funky Matas is a testament to that mission. "We're beyond excited to work with Funky," said Gigault CEO. "His energy, creativity, and unparalleled knack for engaging with the public are exactly what the world of Web3
