About Mateo y Las Manos Pesadas

Mateo y Las Manos Pesadas blends the essence of a minstrel's narrative with the vibrant energy of Latin American rhythms, offering an evocative journey through its music. Led by Mateo, the Colorado-based group channels a spectrum of emotions, from intimate acoustic melodies to raw, powerful anthems that capture the heart of their diverse influences.

The band's performances are widely known for being transformative experiences that mix humor, storytelling, and spirited musicianship. Mateo regards each show as a deeply personal exchange, no matter the size of the audience, finding joy in the connection that live music fosters.

Recorded under the skilled hands of Venezuelan producer, Alfred Gomez Jr. and sound engineer Eduardo Lopez, the band's songs are a rich collage of acoustic tales and full-bodied arrangements. Mateo y Las Manos Pesadas' upcoming releases, born from sessions in Bogota, Colombia, aim to resonate with listeners by merging the soulful sounds of the Americas.

With each track, Mateo y Las Manos Pesadas aspires to celebrate and unite the vibrant spirits of the Western US and South America, inviting audiences to be part of their cross-cultural sonic adventure.
