With more than 30 years of experience in the manufacturing industry and a long history of building lasting client relationships, Modrall brings a wealth of knowledge and expertise to the Fuuz team. He is ideally positioned to help Fuuz take customer satisfaction to new heights.

"Fuuz has experienced rapid growth over the last couple of years as more manufactures recognize the value of extending enterprise software with a comprehensive manufacturing platform and it's a very exciting time to join the team," said Steve Modrall, Executive Vice President of Sales.

"Helping manufacturers unlock operational efficiencies is a passion of mine and I look forward to leveraging my expertise to help our clients advance their digital strategies and accelerate innovation," said Modrall. "I'm confident that we will not only meet but exceed the evolving needs of our clients and set new benchmarks for success in the industry."

Modrall's appointment marks a significant milestone in Fuuz's growth trajectory. With his support, Fuuz aims to further strengthen its position as a market leader in manufacturing software, delivering unparalleled value and driving transformative change across the landscape.
