

Sabeer Nelli Invites Businesses to Experience Zil Money's Document Mailing Service

Zil Money now allows users to mail checks, documents, and invoices.

TYLER, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, March 27, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Sabeer Nelli, CEO and founder of Zil Money, a leading B2B payment platform in the USA, invited businesses to checkout Zil Money's new Document Mailing service, which makes it easy for users to send PDF documents to multiple recipients through postal services.

"As businesses depend more on digital solutions, the importance of efficient document management and mailing processes grows significantly," said Sabeer. "We provide a smooth and efficient solution customized for businesses' needs."

Zil Money also provides the Document Mailing API, which offers essential features, such as uploading PDF documents for easy mailing. It enhances workflow management, empowering users to handle document correspondence efficiently, increasing productivity and convenience. Zil Money's innovative approach includes introducing this API to simplify integrating mailing functions into other platforms. Developers can seamlessly add features allowing customers to mail documents directly from their applications, improving user experience and workflow efficiency.

"Our Document Mailing feature and API meet a new standard for simplicity, efficiency, and convenience," said Sabeer.

The payment SaaS platform used to offer check mail service and recently added new options, including First Class Check Mailing for $1.25, First Class USPS Canada for $2.99, First Class with Tracking for $6.99, Priority Mail through USPS for $11.99, Express Mail USPS for $34.99, FedEx Overnight USA for $24.99, and FedEx Overnight Canada for $29.99.

Zil Money is dedicated to empowering businesses with innovative tools to streamline financial processes and foster growth. The introduction of Document Mailing marks a significant step in the company's ongoing mission to modernize financial and administrative procedures for its users.

Zil Money also lets businesses process payroll by credit card feature without needing a subscription. This feature enhances payment procedures, providing exceptional flexibility and ease in managing employee wages. With Zil Money's innovation, businesses can smoothly handle payroll transactions using credit card payments, marking a notable advancement in financial management. This empowers businesses with greater control and efficiency in meeting their payroll needs.
