Biker's, Buds, & Brews: A Unique Musical Experience at Field of Greens

Grams & Jams Productions is thrilled to reveal the lineup for the eagerly awaited "Biker's, Buds, & Brews" event on May 18, 2024. This year, the event will take place at the innovative Field of Greens, the first venue of its kind to offer attendees the unique experience of purchasing both cannabis and alcohol. Esteemed bands Marcy Playground and Soul Asylum are set to deliver unforgettable performances, marking a significant moment in the summer music calendar.

Baldwin Gives Back: Our Pledge to the Community

To further our impact within the community, Grams & Jams Productions proudly introduces Baldwin Gives Back, a nonprofit initiative focused on enriching the Baldwin community through strategic charitable endeavors. This effort reflects our deep commitment to giving back and fostering a positive change to the community we now call home.

"The Baldwin Community has welcomed us with open arms. Baldwin Gives Back is our way of showing appreciation for the warm welcome! We are very excited for the future!"

About Marcy Playground

90's alternative rockers Marcy Playground celebrated their 25 year veterancy in the music industry in 2022. They released their self-titled debut album in 1997, which included the hit single "Sex and Candy". Since then, the band has had a record go platinum, released four posterior albums, had their music featured on the big screen (Cruel Intentions, Antitrust, Simply Irresistible, Hurricane Streets, Jay and Silent Bob Strikes Back, Zack and Miri Make A Porno), and have toured extensively with bands such as Everclear, Gin Blossoms, Lit, Sugar Ray, and more.

About Soul Asylum

Grammy award-winning and multi-platinum selling rock band Soul Asylum started as Minneapolis' punk younger brothers to the Replacements and Husker Dü. Their 1992 breakthrough album, Grave Dancers Union, featured the international hits "Runaway Train," "Black Gold" and "Somebody to Shove." "Runaway Train" won a Grammy, and its music video brought nearly two dozen missing and exploited children and teens around the world home to their families.
