Our new Board consists of an experienced group of talented and dedicated voter-elected commissioners from local water suppliers.”

President Ralph Atoria of the South Farmingdale Water District

“Our new Board consists of an experienced group of talented and dedicated voter-elected commissioners from local water suppliers,” President Atoria stated. Our 21-member districts within Nassau and Suffolk Counties have the important responsibility of providing quality water that meets or exceeds all local, state and federal standards, to the 620,000 consumers we serve, without interruption and without compromise. I am confident in the leadership of our association as we fulfill our mission of being an authoritative voice in water supply by educating the public regarding sustainability, safeguarding our water, and the health of our aquifer.”

About Nassau Suffolk Water
Commissioners' Association (NSWCA):

Organized and chartered in 1981, the Nassau Suffolk Water Commissioners' Association (NSWCA) is comprised of water commissioners elected by voters in each of 21 Nassau County and Suffolk County water districts. The NSWCA is dedicated to promoting environmental excellence and best practices as well as to maintaining the highest standards of water quality and supply. The Nassau Suffolk Water Commissioners' Association sponsors regular educational meetings and trainings on topics that include compliance, the environment, security, economics, conservation, sustainability, remediation, water treatment and aquifer health, among other issues germane to water utilities.
