Angry Horse Brewing launches its newest creation dedicated to the new Dodgers' superstar.

LOS ANGELES, CA, USA, March 27, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Angry Horse Brewing announces the launch of its newest creation, "The Sho," a rice lager dedicated to the new Dodgers superstar, Shohei Ohtani. This special brew debuts for the Dodgers' Opening Day at Dodger Stadium on March 28, 2024, offering fans and beer aficionados alike a unique way to celebrate the start of the baseball season.

The Sho Rice Lager for Dodgers Opening Game

"The Sho" is more than just a beer; it's a tribute to the art of craft brewing and the spirit of community that Los Angeles embodies. Crafted with precision and care, it features a delicate blend of jasmine rice and Sabro hops, resulting in a smooth lager with notes of coconut and citrus that pay homage to Shohei Ohtani's journey from Japan to California.

"Creating 'The Sho' was a labor of love, inspired by the incredible talent and spirit of Shohei Ohtani. We wanted to craft a beer that not only celebrates his arrival to the Dodgers but also symbolizes the bond between our community and the team. There's nothing better than local LA love, and we're excited to share this with everyone," states Nathan McCusker, co-founder at Angry Horse Brewing, expressing his enthusiasm for the new product.

As fans gather to root for the Dodgers this season, "The Sho" invites them to raise a glass in celebration of more than just a game but also an opportunity to toast to craftsmanship, camaraderie, and the collective joy of being part of something greater.

Angry Horse Brewing is known for its commitment to excellence and its dedication to fostering connections within the community. "The Sho" represents the culmination of these values, offering a unique beer encapsulating the essence of Los Angeles and its beloved baseball team.
