A vibrant, colorful poster for the 'Sew Me How' program. At the top, it says 'Imagine Me Movement Present' and 'SEW ME HOW' in large, stylized letters. The main text reads: 'Unlock Your Potential with the Sew Me How Program: Enhancing Life Skills, Confidence, and Empowerment Through Sewing, one stitch at a time.' Below this, it specifies 'Teen Girls aged 13+ looking to learn sewing and express their creativity.' and lists benefits: 'Basic sewing.', 'Confidence-building through creative expression.', and 'Opportunities for collaboration and showcasing work.' A central illustration shows a young woman with colorful hair and a matching outfit, standing next to a sewing machine and various sewing supplies like spools of thread and fabric. A circular badge on the right says '3 days Summer camp July 18-20 10am-12:00pm'. At the bottom, it says 'REGISTER NOW: WWW.restoretoempower.org' and 'Serving Fayette & Fulton County'.
