

Duniva Corp Trade & Investment: Achieving Financial Stability

PARAMARIBO, AJELTAKE ISLAND,
SURINAME, March 27, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Duniva Corp ("Duniva"), a Global Trade Finance and Financial Instruments provider, has announced the establishment of a special fund in partnership with its offshore-based equity provider to support cash-strapped businesses with Credit Lines.

"Our purpose at Duniva Corp is to make the aspirations of our clients achievable by remaining a reliable funding partner to them," said Bisnajak Vikash, Duniva Corp Chief Executive Officer. "This program will bring great relief to many business owners who are unable to obtain traditional financing from mainstream banks."

The company's eligibility criteria are very straightforward, aiming to complete all due diligence checks within 14-21 working days depending on the location of the applicant, according to Duniva.

"The objective is to grow this program to a multi-billion-dollar fund within a reasonable time to support our clients," said Bisnajak Vikash.

Bisnajak Vikash, founder and CEO of Duniva Corp said: "The realization of this fund is in line with our commitment to provide vital financing and support to our clients, especially as many businesses continue to face challenges by increased demand for collateral and the general unwillingness of banks to lend."

Duniva Corp will start accepting applications from April 8, 2024. Only applications with a minimum value of USD 5M will be considered with lower amounts potentially being eligible depending on industry, location, and experience. Terms and conditions apply.

Eligible Countries: All countries except those under EU, US, UK and UN sanctions.
