In response to current market challenges characterized by significant drops in venture capital activity and the looming specter of corporate failures, Tactical Management reaffirms its commitment to proactive and hands-on investment strategies. With VC dealmaking and funding experiencing a downturn and forecasts indicating an increase in corporate failures in 2024, innovative approaches to investment management are more crucial than ever.

"At Tactical Management, we embrace the dynamic nature of the market and strive to address challenges with agility and foresight," stated Mario Kormann, the newest addition to the team. "We approach investments with a calculated risk mindset, actively managing all portfolio companies and driving tangible results. Our strategies focus on fast-tracking early-stage startups, optimizing underperforming entities, and facilitating market access through strategic joint ventures."
