A hostel can be described as a kind of budget-friendly shared accommodation that has a common area. Hostels typically have dorm-style rooms for travelers, but private rooms and hotel-like facilities are also available nowadays. Hostels prefer to concentrate on building a sociable atmosphere and are much less costly than hotels.

The main types of hostels are for students, workers, and others. A student hostel is a structure used by educational institutions to house their enrolled students. The different modes of booking involve online bookings, direct bookings, and others, and the price point of the services includes economy, mid-range, and luxury.
