

TozziniFreire is one of the leading law firms in Brazil in 2023

A research released by Latin American Corporate Counsel Association shows the evolution of the firm, which raised its position in the Top 10 ranking

SÃO PAULO, SÃO PAULO, BRASIL, March 28, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- TozziniFreire Advogados is once again ranked among the 10 leading law firms in Brazil with the most prominent clients, according to the annual survey conducted by LACCA (Latin American Corporate Counsel Association).

For this analysis, the guide selects the 100 largest companies in the region, considering their revenues and profitability, and checks with their General Counsels also to know which offices they have worked over the last year. In this group, the firm presented its best performance in recent years, increasing its market share by 3% last year among the most relevant firms in Latin America.

According to Fernando Serec, CEO of TozziniFreire, "in a challenging year with several changes in legislation, government policies and society in general, TozziniFreire sought to increase proximity and partnership with its clients, providing safe and innovative legal solutions, for a world in constant transformation, which requires quick responses".
