PointFire Translator Express Now Available on Microsoft AppSource

PointFire Translator Express makes multlingual functionality in Microsoft SharePoint Online a breeze. It translates any modern page or document in seconds.

OTTAWA, ONTARIO, CANADA, March 28, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- PointFire, the standard for Multilingual SharePoint, today announced the availability of PointFire Translator Express on Microsoft AppSource, an online cloud marketplace providing tailored line-of-business solutions.

PointFire Translator Express now available for download

PointFire Translator Express makes multlingual functionality in Microsoft SharePoint Online a breeze by translating any modern page or any document to all the languages of your site in seconds. The app leverages the capabilities of Azure AI Translator and Microsoft Azure Blob Storage, which it provisions for you in your own account. As a result, not only does it translate with state-of-the-art accuracy, but it satisfies strict security and data residency requirements that the user may need to comply with.
