

2nd Annual Graham Jackson Scholarship Concert featuring World-Class Organist Jelani Eddington

Stevenson High School Music Student to be Awarded Scholarship

STONE MOUNTAIN, GA., UNITED STATES, March 28, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Atlanta Chapter of the American Theatre Organ Society is thrilled to present the 2nd Annual Graham Jackson Scholarship Concert, which will be held on Saturday, April 20 at 2:30 p.m. at Stephenson High School in Stone Mountain, Ga.

For the second time, a deserving music student at Stephenson High School will be awarded a $1500 scholarship in honor of Graham Jackson, one of Atlanta’s most spectacular musicians who was known for his performances on the theatre pipe organ and his friendship with Franklin D. Roosevelt, which propelled him to widespread recognition worldwide and among other U.S. presidents.

“

We hope the community surrounding the school, and organ music enthusiasts alike, will join us to celebrate the life and legacy of Graham Jackson.”

Edward Hulsey, American Theatre Organ Society Atlanta Chapter President

Ten years ago, world-class organist Jelani Eddington played the dedication concert on the one-of-a-kind Grande Page theatre organ. The members of The American Theatre Organ Society Atlanta Chapter are honored to welcome Eddington back for the 2024 event. Eddington will be joined onstage by the Stephenson High School Wind Ensemble, directed by Mr. Quentin Goins, the 2023 Georgia Music Educator of the Year.

“If there ever is the prime opportunity to support the chapter and hear the Grande Page organ at its best, this is the time,” said Chapter President Edward Hulsey. “We hope the community surrounding the school, and organ music enthusiasts alike, will join us in celebrating the life and legacy of Graham Jackson. And we are particularly excited to honor a young music student with our scholarship designed to support and celebrate the best of what ATOS is about – music, education and fun.”

Adult tickets can be purchased for $15 online at atosatlanta.org or $20 at the door, and students under 18 will be admitted for free. To purchase tickets to the event, visit <https://atosatlanta.ticketspice.com/graham-jackson-scholarship-show-featuring-jelani-eddington>. Contact aparrish@rhythmcommunications.com to learn more or to schedule an interview.

Amy W Parrish
Rhythm Communications
404-310-6559
aparrish@rhythmcommunications.com

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/699505843>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2024 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.