

World Champions Greg Crozier & Karine Joly Breaks Incredible Skydiving World Record

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, March 29, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Greg Crozier & Karine Joly, world-class skydiving and freeflying athletes, have made history with an incredible achievement in the sky. Known for their passion and skill in artistic skydiving, the athletes have been competing since 2008 and have earned numerous awards and recognition for his talent. Their latest feat is a testament to his dedication and expertise in the sport, solidifying his position as one of the most respected and accomplished skydivers in the world.

Their astonishing accomplishments reached new heights when 42 parachutists achieved an exceptional world first: The first World Record for flying in a large formation in head-down flight. This remarkable feat took place at Skydive Arizona, where two Skyvans aircraft were used. The planes executed a precise formation flight before the release of the 42 skydivers at an altitude of 17,000 feet (5,150 meters). After climbing under oxygen, the daring parachutists free fell while carrying and using pyrotechnic rockets attached to their feet. Groundbreaking accomplishment brought together participants from 11 nations, and it took four valiant attempts to successfully complete the record-setting formation.

This feature marks the couple of Greg Crozier & Karine Joly have 16 world records and 12 Gold medals, adding to their already impressive list of accomplishments since they began competing
