

Pulse of the City News Honors Three Contractors for 13 Years of Outstanding Customer Service

Three contractors recently received their thirteenth straight Pulse Award for Customer Satisfaction.

LAPEER, MI, UNITED STATES, April 1, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Among the recent nominees for Pulse of the City News' Outstanding Customer Satisfaction Award are three contractors that earned their thirteenth consecutive award in 2024. The annual award honors contractors and construction companies that have placed an emphasis on customer service and satisfaction.

All Around Joe in Milford, Ohio, sums up its answer to ensuring customer satisfaction with just one word: communication. No matter the job, the goal is to communicate throughout the project to make sure clients receive the best service possible. Established in 1996 to help homeowners achieve their dreams of upgrading their homes, All Around Joe handles everything from simple repairs to major renovations. The company's handymen take pride in their craft and enjoy using their experience to the customers' benefit. They have the tools and skills necessary to complete each project to the client's total satisfaction. Pulse of the City News prides itself on honoring businesses and professionals in the construction and real estate industries such as these that provide an excellent customer experience.

What sets the Pulse Award apart is the research behind it. Pulse uses a database of performance information that has been compiled on an ongoing basis since 2009. Then, by determining an annual rating for companies, Pulse offers a level of stability that tells the whole story, not just what the company did last week. The Pulse Award is reserved for those earning the highest ratings of 4 or 5 stars.

Frank Andrews, Executive Director of The Stirling Center, which works with Pulse of the City in identifying building and construction companies that provide more than just great design and construction services, but also a great customer experience, says, "They are shining examples of the great contribution that leading small businesses make to the quality of our lives and communities, and we salute them!"
