

Long Beach Black Business CoOp Monthly Business Networking Conference to Connect, Collaborate, and Grow Together!

LONG BEACH, CA, UNITED STATES, April 2, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The saying goes, "People do business with people they know, like, and trust." This rings true for many successful entrepreneurs and business owners. Building relationships and establishing trust is key in growing a successful business. That's why the Black Business CoOp is excited to announce their upcoming Monthly Business Networking Conference on Saturday, April 27th from 9 AM to 7 PM.

We are excited to network with like-minded business owners and entrepreneurs seeking new ways to grow their businesses. Let's come together, support each other, and make our businesses thrive!"

Sharifah Hardie

The Black Business CoOp is a community-driven organization that aims to support and promote black-owned businesses. Their monthly networking conference provides a platform for entrepreneurs and business owners to connect, collaborate, and grow together. This event is open to all, regardless of race, and welcomes anyone who is passionate about supporting and promoting black-owned businesses.

The upcoming conference will feature special guest and Black Business CoOp co-founder Sharifah Hardie, who recently announced her intent to run for California Governor.
