About Billy Strings

Raised in Michigan and now based in Nashville, Strings is known as one of music's most compelling artists. Most recently, he released "Meet Me At The Creek > Pyramid Country > Must Be Seven > Meet Me At The Creek (Live at Lawrence Joel Veterans Memorial Coliseum, Winston-Salem, NC 3/4/23)," a 38-minute live performance that showcases the energy of Strings' electric concerts. The track follows "California Sober," his GRAMMY-nominated collaboration with legendary artist Willie Nelson and Strings' first project since partnering with Reprise Records, as well as his latest full-length album, Me/And/Dad, which features Strings alongside his dad, Terry Barber, and was nominated for Best Bluegrass Album at this year's GRAMMY Awards. The product of a longtime dream, Me/And/Dad consists of new versions of fourteen bluegrass and country classics that the two have been playing together since Strings was a young child.
