The webinar aims to delve into the intricacies of the Portugal Golden Visa program, offering expats the opportunity to acquire residency through investment, leading ultimately to Portuguese citizenship. Participants can anticipate gaining a comprehensive understanding of the benefits, eligibility criteria, and key considerations associated with the Portugal investment funds.

Established as a five-year residency by investment scheme, the Portuguese Golden Visa Program offers a gateway to European Union residency and citizenship. With over 12,718 ARIs granted since its inception, totaling more than €7.3 billion in investments, the program has garnered significant interest from investors worldwide.

Lourenço Alvares explains the popularity of the program: "In recent years, the Portugal Golden Visa investment fund pathway has emerged as a preferred route for obtaining residency and citizenship. With the flexibility of investment options and stringent regulatory oversight, the fund option offers investors a secure and potentially lucrative avenue towards their Golden Visa
