/EINPresswire.com/ -- Following on the success of the first Solidarity Session held in March, The Italian American One Voice Coalition (“IAOVC”), America’s largest independent Italian American anti-bias organization, and The Native American Guardian’s Association (“NAGA”), advocating for increased education about Native Americans, jointly announce the second in a series of collaborative sessions bringing Native American, Italian American and other communities together to oppose the pervasive threat of cancel culture. These “Solidarity Sessions – Bridging Cultures Against Cancel Culture” aim to foster understanding, promote dialogue and build solidarity among diverse groups facing challenges from cultural erasure and historical revisionism.

IAOVC & NAGA Hold Second Solidarity Session - "Bridging Cultures Against Cancel Culture" - Join the video call April 14 - 7 PM EDT - Register at www.thesolidaritysessions.com

Cancel culture has increasingly become a concerning phenomenon in today's society. It often overlooks the complexities of history and cultural context, leading to the silencing of voices and the erasure of important narratives.

Native American and Italian American communities share a common experience of marginalization and misrepresentation in mainstream discourse. Both groups have faced historical injustices and stereotypes that continue to impact their communities today. By joining forces, they aim to confront the harmful effects of cancel culture and reclaim their narratives.

“Our first Solidarity Session was a great success,” stated Eunice Davidson, President and a founding member of NAGA. “We were able to share our cultural experiences and history and learn more about each other. More of this is needed in our country today.”

Participants in the first Solidarity Session had discussions and cultural exchanges. Everyone enjoyed the opportunity to engage in meaningful dialogue, learn from each other's perspectives, and develop actionable strategies to address the challenges posed by cancel culture.

Andre DiMino, President of IAOVIC commented, "It was very rewarding to see this effort come to fruition. We are continuing to foster this progress among our cultures and hope to see many others join in the next and succeeding Solidarity Sessions."

The next Solidarity Session will take place via Zoom on Sunday, April 14, 2024 at 7 PM Eastern. Members of the Native American and Italian American communities, as well as allies and supporters, are encouraged to attend and participate in this important dialogue. Reservation is required. A new website has been launched for the Solidarity Sessions where you can click a link to submit a reservation. Visit thesolidaritysessions.com

About NAGA

The Native Americans Guardian's Association is an IRS-Registered 501(c)3 non-profit advocating for increased education about Native Americans, especially in public educational institutions, and greater recognition of Native American Heritage through the high-profile venues of sports and other public platforms. "Educate not eradicate." To learn more about NAGA visit nagaeducation.org. About IAOV

IAOV is a nationwide coalition of Italian American organizations and individual members whose sole purpose is to defend Italian American heritage and culture. In its 32-year history IAOV has fought back and defeated repeated attempts to cancel Columbus Day and/or remove Columbus statues around the nation. IAOV is an IRS-Registered 501(c)3 non-profit. To support IAOV's efforts at defending and educating about Columbus and Italian American civil rights visit iaov.org/donate. IAOV membership is open to individuals and all Italian American organizations to join together as a coalition defending and celebrating Italian American heritage and culture. To join visit iaov.org/membership.

IAOV issues a regular free email newsletter, "The Alfano Digest.". The Digest issues alerts on instances of bias, stereotyping, discrimination, and defamation. It also contains informative Italian American cultural, educational and heritage information. To request the Alfano Digest at no charge, fill out the form on iaov.org.
