"No one looks forward to termination conversations, but it's important to know how to have them effectively," said Craig Robbins. "Careful planning, preparation, and the use of a proven step-by-step methodology can make these sessions less painful and awkward for everyone."

In this webinar, participants will learn:

- How to plan and prepare for a termination
- How to conduct a termination conversation with poise
- What NOT to do or say during a termination conversation
- How to minimize any potential risks during the termination process

"In an era where organizations are reshaping their structures and workforces, effective communication has never been more critical. In this webinar, Craig brings his expertise to the forefront, guiding participants through the delicate and challenging employee termination process,” said Robin Salsberry, President of Propositions. “But this webinar isn’t just about procedure; it’s about ensuring individual dignity and respect while minimizing legal risk and personal trauma.”
