"We are deeply grateful to Bosch Power Tools North America for their generosity and commitment to support our warriors on their journey to recovery. This new collaboration will be instrumental in expanding our holistic healing program. Together, we can make a tangible difference in their lives and families impacted by providing them with new skills, purpose, and an ability to reclaim their lives," explains Warriors Heart CEO Josh Lannon.

Bosch Power Tools is "a world leader in the design, manufacture and sale of power tools, rotary and oscillating tools, power tool accessories, laser and optical leveling devices, and range finding tools."

This collaboration has enhanced Warriors Heart's Full Continuum of Care Programs, which includes: Detox, Residential Treatment (in-patient), Day treatment, Outpatient (IOP), Sober Living, MeRT (brain treatment) and Aftercare.

Along with evidence based therapeutic services, Warriors Heart's 42-day treatment program provides clients with electives (K9 training, gym, jiu jitsu, metal shop, wood shop, art therapy, fishing, and more) and vocational training (job skills) to repurpose their lives and look forward with a vision.

The Wood Shop and Metal Shop are sacred healing places at Warriors Heart, where the Bosch Tools will make a significant impact on this experience.

The Wood Shop and Metal Shop are sacred healing places at Warriors Heart, where the Bosch Power Tools North America will make a significant impact on this experience.

At the Wood Shop, warriors are guided through the process of working with wood as a way to build/create art work to enhance their healing process. This experience is shown to help clients access their emotions, develop interpersonal skills, reduce stress, increase self-esteem, achieve insights, and provide an additional skill.

“

We are deeply grateful to Bosch Power Tools North America for their generosity and commitment to support our warriors on their journey to recovery.”
