the acquisition of Duality aligns with Sureserve's mission - to be the trusted partner of choice to the social housing and public sector in delivering essential affordable heating and energy savings,”

Graham Levinsohn, Group CEO of Sureserve

Duality was established in 2016, acquiring Dyson in the same year, before subsequently acquiring Gas Call in 2018 and WRB in 2021. Duality has grown to revenues of £56m and will increase Sureserve's geographic coverage and deepen its service offering.

Sureserve are delighted to welcome Duality and its 421 employees. The Group look forward to working with Duality's customers, staff, and management in continuing to build on a successful platform.

Graham Levinsohn, Group CEO of Sureserve, said "the acquisition of Duality aligns with Sureserve's mission - to be the trusted partner of choice to the social housing and related public sector in delivering essential and affordable heating, energy savings, and compliance solutions, playing a key and progressive role in decarbonisation, always delivering for customers, employees, residents and the environment with safety, integrity and respect at the forefront of everything we do."
