The two-day

event provides participants the opportunity to learn advocacy strategies from national policy experts – including Mollyrose Schaffner of ZERO TO THREE and Leticia Mederos of Actum – engage directly with legislators on Capitol Hill, and network with fellow leaders from 19 states (Alabama, California, Colorado, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Massachusetts, Maryland, Missouri, Mississippi, North Carolina, Nebraska, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Tennessee, and Texas).

"NDBN Lobby Days is a critical initiative that empowers the diaper bank community to advocate for the federal support needed to ensure all families have access to the basic necessities required to thrive," said Lacey Gero, Director of Government Relations at NDBN. "We're excited to bring together diaper bank leaders from across the country to meet with members of Congress and advance policies that will help end diaper need once and for all."
