

SIXGEN Welcomes New CEO Jack Wilmer to Further Empower Its Leading Cyber Solutions

ANNAPOLIS, MARYLAND, UNITED STATES, April 9, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In a strategic move to bolster its leadership within the cyber and national security sectors, SIXGEN is has announced the appointment of Jack Wilmer as the new Chief Executive Officer.

With a distinguished public and private career, Wilmer's vast experience in cybersecurity leadership is anticipated to drive SIXGEN towards achieving groundbreaking success in supporting the U.S. defense and intelligence communities.

Jack Wilmer steps into his role at SIXGEN backed by an impressive record as the former CEO of Core4ce, where his leadership significantly contributed to the firm's accomplishments in cybersecurity domains for the Department of Defense (DoD) and Intelligence Community (IC). Wilmer's affinity for SIXGEN, sparked by his intimate knowledge of the company's top-tier team and innovative product suite through previous collaborations, positions him uniquely to lead the company into a new era of excellence and innovation.

Jack focus for SIXGEN will be propelling an already leading company to accomplish the unprecedented.”

Mina Faltas, Founder & Managing Partner of Washington Harbour Partners

Shawn Devroude, Chief Strategy Officer at SIXGEN, expressed confidence in Wilmer's appointment, noting,

"Jack's deep understanding of our operations and his proven leadership in cybersecurity make him the ideal choice to guide SIXGEN. We are poised for an exciting future of growth and continued excellence in serving our nation's security needs."

Echoing this sentiment, Mina Faltas, Founder & Managing Partner of Washington Harbour Partners, emphasized the strategic importance of Wilmer's leadership. "Jack focus for SIXGEN will be propelling an already leading company to accomplish the unprecedented. SIXGEN is at the forefront of cyber solutions, dedicated to enhancing the capabilities of the U.S. defense and intelligence communities. We believe Jack's leadership will enable us to reach new heights and further our mission of delivering unparalleled cyber excellence."

Before Core4ce, Wilmer played an instrumental role in US National Security, serving as the Deputy CIO for Cybersecurity and the CISO at the DoD, and as the Principal Assistant Director for National Security and International Affairs within the Office of Science & Technology Policy (OSTP) at the White House. His deep-rooted commitment to national security and his strategic vision are expected to enrich SIXGEN's mission and operational capabilities significantly.
