

Support Inclusive Play at Free Playdate for the Planet at Inclusion Matters by Shane's Inspiration's My PlayClub Event

Children of ALL abilities are invited to My PlayClub: Playdate for the Planet, on Saturday, April 20th at Maple Park in Glendale, California.

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, April 9, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Inclusion Matters by Shane's Inspiration will host their free community outreach program, My PlayClub: Playdate for the Planet, on Saturday, April 20th, at Maple Park in Glendale. This event brings children of all abilities together to play, learn, and connect. In celebration of Earth Day, there will be crafts, face painting, tattoos, a reading nook, snacks, and plenty of inclusive play at the Maple Park Inclusive Playground in Glendale. The event begins at 10:30 am and ends at 1:00 pm.

We are deeply grateful to Paul Hastings LLP, Northwest Glendale Lions Club, LA2050, Big Sunday, and the City of Glendale Community Services & Parks for their generous support of our mission."

Tiffany Harris, CEO/Co-Founder at Inclusion Matters by Shane's Inspiration

The event sponsors and partners include:

Paul Hastings LLP is a trailblazing global law firm that has been a longtime supporter of Inclusion Matters' education and outreach programs.

This event is one of 24 exciting volunteer activations around the region from April 2nd to May 8th in partnership with LA2050. Each year, LA2050 hosts a Grants Challenge. Angelenos determine the issue areas that will be funded – from homelessness and income inequality to park access – through voting. Voting occurs online via LA2050.org/vote, open to all ages and available in 12 languages.
