

CodaPet launches compassionate in-home pet euthanasia services to Edmond, OK

The Veterinarian-owned startup empowers a network of veterinarians who provide peaceful in-home euthanasia to ease the passing of pets at home

EDMOND, OKLAHOMA, UNITED STATES, April 11, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- CodaPet

announced that it is expanding its reach into Edmond, OK. The company provides peaceful in-home pet euthanasia through a network of compassionate and licensed veterinarians who offer end of life care for pets at home. In-home pet euthanasia is the best experience for dogs and cats and their families because their home is where they feel most familiar and comfortable.

I decided to offer in-home euthanasia services because I am passionate about helping pets pass with dignity and peace at the end of their journey.”

“It is my wish that every family in the Edmond, OK and surrounding neighborhoods become aware of this option so they may provide a peaceful and compassionate end-of-life experience for their beloved pets when their time comes,” says Dr. Karen Whala, a co-founder of CodaPet. “As an in-home euthanasia veterinarian, I repeatedly hear the heartfelt gratitude and the relief a family feels when they have been able to grant their pet this gift.”

Dr. Bethany Hsia, Dr. Gary Hsia, and Dr. Karen Whala are co-founders and veterinarians of CodaPet. They share a passion to increase both customer access and awareness by empowering a network of veterinarians that provide compassion and professional care to more pets and their families in a familiar environment.

"I decided to offer in-home euthanasia services because I am passionate about helping pets pass with dignity and peace at the end of their journey," says Dr Abbey Wesner. Dr Wesner grew up in Montana surrounded by animals and nature. She left her home state after high school to attend Iowa State University and then moved to the island of St. Kitts, West Indies to attend Ross

University School of Veterinary Medicine. After graduation with her Doctorate of Veterinary Medicine, Dr Wesner worked as a small animal general practitioner in Pittsburgh, PA before moving to Edmond, OK in 2018. The past 3 years she has been providing veterinary relief services in central Oklahoma, working at several different clinics in the area.

Dr. Wesner joins Dr. Christina White and Dr Cara Gordon to serve pets and pet parents in Edmond, OK and surrounding cities including Oklahoma City, Choctaw, Midwest City, Yukon, Perkins, Glencoe, Langston, Morrison, and Ripley

How In-home Pet Euthanasia Works

Through CodaPet's website, pet parents can easily book in-home pet euthanasia performed by a licensed vet.

Before the appointment, the vet contacts the family to address any questions or concerns they might have.

The vet assists the family by going over the diagnosis and applying a quality-of-life assessment to objectively assess the pet's health and ensure there is no uncertainty about the need for euthanasia.

For those who need support with aftercare, CodaPet can also assist with transportation and cremation services.

The visit takes, on average, one hour. Pet parents have a window of time to be with their pets privately before and after the euthanasia procedure, which lasts about 15 minutes. The vet only starts the euthanasia process when everyone is ready. This helps bring closure to all family members involved in the end-of-life care of a pet.

Benefits of at-home euthanasia may include:

1. Comfort: One of the most significant benefits of in-home pet euthanasia is the comfort it provides to both the pet and their owners. The familiar surroundings of home can help reduce anxiety and stress for pets, making the process more peaceful. Additionally, being surrounded by loved ones can provide a sense of comfort and support during a difficult time.
2. Compassion: In-home pet euthanasia allows for a more compassionate approach to end-of-life care. Pets can be surrounded by their loved ones, receive individual attention and care, and pass away peacefully in a familiar environment.

3. Control: In-home pet euthanasia also allows pet owners to have more control over the process. They can choose the time and place of the euthanasia, as well as who will be present. This can help alleviate feelings of powerlessness and allow for a more personalized experience. In addition, in-home euthanasia allows owners to personalize the experience, including choosing the location, music, lighting, and other factors that can make the experience more meaningful.

4. Closure: Being able to say goodbye in a meaningful way can be an essential part of the grieving process. In-home pet euthanasia allows for a more intimate farewell, which can provide closure and help with the healing process.
