About Korman:

From Korman's humble beginnings in 1973 to today, Korman has become Where Austin Gets Engaged. As Austin's luxury jewelry destination, Korman offers a hand-curated selection of designer jewelry, the finest diamonds and Swiss timepieces in Central Texas. Since becoming owners in 2018, Kat and Larry Stokes have upheld the legacy of integrity, community and superlative quality and service as their pillars of success. Keeping true to Korman's roots, Korman's new flagship location will open in the fall of 2024 at 29th & Lamar, embodying a timeless and contemporary design in collaboration with Michael Hsu Office of Architecture. Korman will house a selection of the finest jewels from designers and diamond cutters from all over the world, in addition to partnerships with the top Swiss timepiece manufacturers and a world-class Rolex service center. Their jewelry social house is always abuzz and there is always fun in the air as they 'Celebrate Every Day'. This has become Korman's ethos as they come alongside clients to pair them with memorable and special pieces that crystalize moments and milestones in their life. Independently owned and operated for over 50 years, Korman is a member of the Longhorn Business Network and a pillar in the Austin community.
