In his review, Les Brown expressed his excitement and support for the book, emphasizing the significance of the legislation introduced by Dr. Jennings. Drawing from his own experiences as a single father and former legislator, Les Brown highlighted the challenges faced by fathers seeking access to their children and the absence of laws to regulate and facilitate their involvement in their children's lives.

"Dr. Jennings has introduced legislation and got it passed. Hopefully it will be passed all across the country," said Les Brown. "He decided, 'I'm not a sperm donor, I want to be involved with my child's life.' He introduced legislation that fathers who have decided to be responsible and be engaged with their children emotionally, physically, and financially. Legislation that will make that possible."

Les Brown also underscored the impact of absent fathers on the well-being of young people today, emphasizing the importance of legislation that supports and enables responsible fatherhood. He commended Dr. Jennings for his dedication to advocating for good fathers and urged others to stand with him in supporting the Good Dad Act.

"Thank you for the work that you are doing and I'm encouraging everyone, let us stand with him. The Good Dad Act is something that we all can embrace," said Les Brown.

The endorsement from Les Brown, a highly respected figure in the field of personal development and motivation, further solidifies the significance of Dr. hc Bernard Wh Jennings' work and the importance of his upcoming book, "Ethan's Good Dad Act." THE FLORIDA SENATE
2023 SUMMARY OF LEGISLATION PASSED
Committee on Children, Families, and Elder Affairs

by Judiciary Committee; Civil Justice Subcommittee; and Reps. Benjamin, Hawkins, and others (CS/CS/SB 1146 by Judiciary Committee; Children, Families, and Elder Affairs Committee; and Senator Yarbrough)

The bill clarifies that after the birth of a child a parent may request a determination of parental responsibility and child support and for the creation of a parenting plan and timesharing schedule pursuant to ch. 61, F.S. Absent such a determination of parental responsibility and child support, a mother retains sole parental responsibility and there is no requirement for timesharing.

The bill requires that any action to establish paternity includes a determination of parental responsibility and a parenting plan, establish a timesharing schedule, and child support. The bill attaches determinations of parental responsibility and timesharing to the establishment of paternity for a father under ch. 742, F.S.

The bill also clarifies that an unwed mother and a father who sign a voluntary acknowledgment of paternity or have established paternity through a court judgment are the natural guardians of the child. As such, they are subject to the rights and responsibilities of parents that a married parent would enjoy. If a father has not established paternity, the mother is the natural parent and is entitled to primary residential care and custody of the child.

If approved by the Governor, or allowed to become law without the Governor's signature, these provisions take effect July 1, 2023.
Vote: Senate 38-0; House 114-0
