Teen Challenge Host Josh Baldwin

With a mission to support individuals on their journey to overcoming addiction, Shenandoah Valley Adult Teen Challenge Virginia is renowned for its commitment to restoring lives through faith-based principles and comprehensive rehabilitation programs. These concerts are a significant opportunity to raise vital funds to continue their impactful work in the community.

Josh Baldwin, the gold-certified singer-songwriter and worship leader from the renowned Bethel Music collective, is bringing his heartfelt melodies and inspiring lyrics to the Shenandoah Valley. With a decade of experience as a worship pastor in North Carolina and a heart for global worship, Josh's music resonates deeply with audiences worldwide. His latest album, "Made For More," reflects his dedication to crafting songs for the local church and corporate worship, including the chart-topping single "Stand in Your Love."

"We are honored to welcome Josh Baldwin to our community for these special concerts," said Justin Franich, Executive Director at Shenandoah Valley Adult Teen Challenge Virginia. "His music carries a message of hope and redemption, aligning perfectly with our mission to support individuals in their journey towards healing and restoration."

Tickets for these exclusive concerts are available now and can be secured at <https://svtc.info/concert>. Don't miss this opportunity to experience an evening of uplifting music while supporting a worthy cause.
