for re-election.

"I am pleased to share with our friends and families the Hawaii Fire Fighters Association's Executive Board's unanimous vote of confidence in Mayor Blangiardi," said Robert "Bobby" Lee, President, HFFA. "He has and continues to deal with immeasurable challenges and has responsibly directed City resources to address community concerns. HFFA appreciates his leadership and direction during the most demanding of times."

"Our men and women who work every day on the front lines of public safety are heroes," said Mayor Rick Blangiardi. "To receive this acknowledgment from heroes who put their lives on the line every day is deeply appreciated, and I feel honored to receive their support for my re-election."

Mayor Blangiardi's commitment to and support of the fire fighters and all public safety workers have been extremely responsive and unwavering. He has made every effort to provide our fire fighters with the resources needed to continue to respond to the community while protecting our first responders. He has also actively engaged in discussions collectively with HFFA and the
