Ship's services in their own backyards.

According to Ahrens, working alongside his wife, Wendy, and their amazing team has been a blast! "Running our local mom-and-pop pack and ship business is a true labor of love," Ahrens always says with a smile.

"My wife Wendy and I are having fun working alongside each other, and we take great pride in our family-owned shipping company as well as being Navis Pack & Ship franchise owners," affirmed Ahrens. "We truly value our customers and each and every item they entrust us with for shipment, whether it's a priceless painting, cherished heirloom, valuable auction purchase, or bulky office item."

Ahrens and Wendy's journey from raising a loving family in Milwaukee to owning their first Navis franchise in 2018 to servicing families throughout South Florida and now serving families and businesses throughout the Tampa Bay Area is truly inspiring.
