Ashvin Gidwani's Barff (ICE) is an unusual play with visual grandeur.”

Hindustan Times

Set against the stunning backdrop of the Kashmir Valley during the winter season, "Ashvin Gidwani's Barff (ICE)" unfolds over the course of a single night.

The 110-minute multi-character revolves around three individuals whose lives become entangled amidst a web of unsettling questions. Desperate parents of an ailing child and an unsuspecting doctor find themselves grappling with the concept of truth, prompting the audience to contemplate whether truth is a shared experience or a subjective perception. Does truth shape belief, or is belief responsible for constructing truth? Moreover, does truth exist in an objective form, or is it merely a manifestation of personal conviction?

Apart from Saurabh Shukla, this multi-faceted production features prodigious performances from well-known Bollywood actors such as National award-winning actor Sunil Palwal and renowned Bollywood actor Aanchal Chauhan, who play key roles in the play.

"Ashvin Gidwani's Barff (ICE)" has received rave reviews and accolades for its performances in India and internationally and now it will be staged in multiple cities across the USA on the following dates: April 18th in St. Louis, April 20th in Kansas, April 21st in San Jose, April 27th in Houston, April 28th in King of Prussia PA, May 4th in Ocala FL, and May 5th in Chicago.
