AOLL: Kintsugi Poster

"As the tale progresses, it becomes clear that this is not your typical love story – it is a nuanced and refreshing portrayal of the messy, complicated nature of young love. The film packs an emotional punch that will undoubtedly resonate with viewers of all ages."

- ShortFilmsMatter.com

"Writer/director Pat Mitchell's short film, Apples, Oranges, Lemons & Limes, is an energetic trip down memory lane sure to remind some of great times and others of traumatic times."

- FilmThreat.com

"Given the contemporary times in which we're residing in, replete with ALL forms of mental health issues, it remains at the forefront of absolute necessity for these afflictions to be addressed and worked through, and it makes the film timely, relevant, needed, and ideally another project that causes awareness of it all to be raised to higher degrees."

- OneFilmFan.com

"Existing in a weird space between short film and feature, this just shy of 45-minute film accomplishes quite a bit during its time and the self-taught Mitchell is definitely a filmmaker to watch in the future."

-The Independent Critic

"Apples, Oranges, Lemons & Limes is a sweetly enjoyable experience with strong performances from its leads and a simple-but-effective story that tugs a little at your heartstrings."

- Screencritix.com

"The strength of Apples, Oranges, Lemons & Limes lies in its simplicity. Pat Mitchell does an impressive job of creating an authentic connection which is brought to life well by Calvin Waldau and Skye Marie Sena."
