Tours, LLC is presenting a groundbreaking solution for solo parents traveling with young children.

The company aims to alleviate the logistical challenges faced by single parents when embarking on family adventures. As a military spouse and mom, Simone Atkinson experienced firsthand the complexities of planning family travel while balancing the demands of parenthood. Recognizing the need for a solution that caters specifically to solo parents, Atkinson founded Kids-Friendly Tours to provide a stress-free and enjoyable travel experience for families of all kinds.

“

Our mission is to empower solo parents to reclaim their sense of adventure.”

Simone Atkinson, Founder & CEO

"At Kids-Friendly Tours, we understand the unique challenges that solo parents face when traveling with young children," says Simone Atkinson, Founder and CEO of Kids-Friendly Tours. "Our mission is to empower single parents to explore the world with their children, without the logistical nightmares that often accompany family travel."

One of the key features of Kids-Friendly Tours is its innovative approach to itinerary design. Unlike traditional family tours that prioritize child-centric activities, Kids-Friendly Tours offers adult-centric itineraries with accommodations tailored to children's needs. In addition, the company offers a unique service: an adult day with childcare. This allows parents to enjoy activities tailored to their interests while their children are supervised by qualified caregivers.

Whether it's exploring cultural landmarks, indulging in culinary delights, or simply enjoying some well-deserved relaxation time, parents can rest assured that their children are in safe hands.

"We believe that family travel should be enriching and enjoyable for both parents and children," explains Atkinson. "Our itineraries strike the perfect balance between adult and child-friendly activities, ensuring that every member of the family has a memorable experience."

"At Kids-Friendly Tours, we prioritize the needs and preferences of solo parents, ensuring that they have the opportunity to fully immerse themselves in their travel experiences," says Atkinson. "We're committed to redefining family travel and making it accessible to everyone, regardless of family structure."

Kids-Friendly Tours invites solo parents and families alike to embark on unforgettable adventures, where every moment is tailored to create lasting memories. Parents will be able to discover the world together with Kids-Friendly Tours and experience the joy of hassle-free family travel.
