

30th edition of the Middle East Coatings Show opens tomorrow marking an important day for the global coatings community

The 30th edition of the Middle East Coatings Show is set to open tomorrow, April 15, 2024, marking a significant milestone for the global coatings industry. This event, organized by the Middle East Coatings Association (MECA), will bring together over 350 exhibiting brands from 24 countries, showcasing the latest innovations and trends in the coatings market. The show is expected to attract over 5,000 attendees, providing a unique opportunity for industry professionals to network, share knowledge, and explore new business opportunities. The event will feature a wide range of products and services, including paints, coatings, and related technologies, all presented in a state-of-the-art exhibition hall. The 30th anniversary of the show is a testament to its enduring success and its role as a premier platform for the coatings community in the Middle East region.
