evening of two-wheel excitement with racers running at excessive speeds, sliding through corners, and just inches apart!

Combined with the thrilling AFT racing action, the Goodguys Spring Lone Star Nationals is also taking place in concert with the largest automotive swap meet in Texas, the historic Pate Swap Meet. This massive collection of vintage and collectible automotive parts takes place outside the Speedway April 25-27, features over 10,000 swap meet spaces and is free to attend.

The fun and excitement of the Goodguys event takes place Friday-Sunday on the infield of the Texas Motor Speedway with thousands of classic cars on display including the LMC Truck Ultimate Truck Showcase. All three days feature exciting autocross racing on a new road course as drivers carve through corners and cones to qualify for Saturday afternoon's Speedtech Performance Lone Star Shootout. The Autocross continues on Sunday for all years of American made or powered vehicles during the Meguiar's All American Sunday.

The Goodguys Family Fun Zone provides free games for the kids to enjoy, including the Model Make and Take, Pinewood Derby races plus other crafts and games while the parents get to shop through a huge gathering of the best performance and restoration companies across the country. There is also a tire smoking burnout competition, the fury of vintage dragsters revving up during the Nitro Thunderfest and even more tire burning action during the drifting exhibitions by Lone Star Drift all three days!

The weekend of motorports action culminates Sunday afternoon with live music followed by a
