

Kathleen Dutton Offers An Orphan's Thrilling Story Of Discovering Her Past

A Grim Past Meets The Conflicting Present In Mystery Fiction "Out Of Habit"

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, April 15, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Seasoned writer Kathleen Dutton presents the tale of the young orphaned woman Allison Weston as she navigates through a life outside of the institution that raised her in the book "Out of Habit". Growing up under the care of the nuns at St. Ives Institution, Allie has decided her fate shall also be like the sisters who took care of her and teach other orphaned kids. However, her main caretaker, Sister Margaret, insists that she experience a "normal" life outside of St. Ives. With this undertaking, Allie explores and meets a charming reporter, Ryan Harper. However, this budding romance isn't all happy and cute; Ryan cares deeply for Allie and wants to understand the truth to Allie's secret past. The two go on a journey to discover her dark history and make amends with it.
