Middle East Bottled Water Market Growth:

The growing awareness about the health benefits associated with drinking bottled water is one of the factors contributing to the growth of the market in the Middle East. Additionally, the demand for bottled water has increased due to the scarcity of potable water in the region, which is fueling the market. In line with this, the market is further augmented due to the rising tourism industry particularly in countries, such as UAE, and Saudi Arabia, which is enabling the tourists to buy bottled water as a safe alternative.

Moreover, as individuals in the region are inclining towards following a healthy lifestyle, they are utilizing bottled water as a healthy option to keep themselves hydrated, which is acting as another significant growth-inducing factor.
