BAYONNE, NEW JERSEY, UNITED STATES, April 16, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- The festival of Passover starts April 22-30, an 8-day holiday celebrating the Israelites' Exodus from Egyptian slavery. The most important event in Jewish history is marked by eating a festive meal with matzah, telling the Passover story (Seder) and drinking four cups of wine. And, when you have four cups to get through in one Seder dinner, wine quality is paramount.

Royal Wine Corp. is the largest manufacturer, importer and exporter of Kosher wines and spirits, with a portfolio that spans hundreds of brands and thousands of bottles of world-class wines. This Passover they are introducing top quality wines from some of the finest wine producing regions including California, France, Italy, Spain and Israel, among others.

While 40% of annual kosher wine sales occur for the Passover holiday, sales of kosher wine and spirits have been growing significantly throughout the rest of the year.

According to Jay Buchsbaum, VP of Wine Education at Royal Wine Corp., "There's nothing cookie-cutter about these Passover wines – they are top notch, award winning and distinctive. And, while red wine is traditional for the Passover Seder, it can be a nice Burgundy or a Pinot Noir, or a Cabernet - just as long as it is kosher for Passover. There are dozens to choose from. Our portfolio consists of acclaimed wines that just happen to be kosher, recognized for our quality and value."

These Passover-approved bottles will complement any Seder:

- Rocca delle Macie Chianti Classico, world famous winery producing kosher wine for the first time. This renowned and well regarded brand is producing kosher wine for the first time exclusively for Royal Wine Corp. SRP $25
- Lovatelli, a new line of fine, affordable Italian wines, including Salento Primitivo, SRP $17 and Barbera d'Asti, SRP $25;
- Cantina Giuliano, fully kosher boutique winery started in 2014 in Tuscany, Italy. The winery was started by a young couple, who inherited wineries from their grandparents. It's now fully kosher with new bottles & labeling.

New Carmel Black Cabernet Sauvignon, Galilée, Israel (SRP $30)

- Many new kosher wines are being imported from South Africa by ESSA & J Folk wineries (among them are: Chenin Blanc, Pinotage, Cabernet Sauvignon and more).
- Château Dauzac Grand Cru Classé and Aurore de Dauzac Margaux '21
- Chateau Roubine Cru Classé Lion & Dragon Red
- Des Moisans Deau Cognac Privilege
- Herzog Lineage Momentus Rose
- J de Villebois Sancerre Pinot Noir
- Kamisa Winery – Galilee, Israel
- Malbec du Clos Triguedina - Cahors
- Shamay Winery Upper Galilee, Israel
- Brio de Château Cantenac Brown, Margaux

Is Kosher for Passover Wine Hard to Find?

Actually, it's rather easy! Most kosher wine is also kosher for Passover, making it easier to sell this wine (and for consumers to stock up on bottles) year-round. Any kosher-for-Passover wine will have a "P" symbol or "Kosher for Passover" next to the kosher certification on the label.

Fine kosher wines are made the same way that fine non-kosher wines are made," adds Buchsbaum. " There is no kosher winemaking 'technique.' "The only difference is that kosher wine is observed by a Sabbath observing Jew throughout the winemaking process."

Consumers looking for wines from renowned regions throughout the world can satisfy their thirst with more options than ever before. It seems the problem is not the availability of great wine but the overwhelming number of great wines to choose from. Royal Wine offers a delicious selection of kosher for Passover wines from around the world," says Buchsbaum. "Some of the top producers are creating award-winning varietals at every price point, and with Passover just around the corner, we want to take the guesswork out of buying wine."

Why Four Cups of Wine

One of the rituals served at Passover is the custom of drinking four cups of wine. The four cups of wine are consumed in a specific order as the story of Exodus is told. Served to the adults throughout the dinner, these four wines represent points from the exodus story. While there are several explanations for the significance of the number four, the connection to "freedom from exile" is often referenced. Happy Passover!
